The political spectrum runs from Left wing on one side to right wing on the other. Where would you place yourself on it? Imagine it as a scale where 0 means you consider yourself to be VERY HARD on the Left, and 100 means you consider yourself to be VERY HARD on the Right. A score of '50' would mean you consider yourself to be exactly in the centre ground. Using this slider, please select a number between 0 – 100 to indicate where you currently sit on the political spectrum.
